I, _____, instruct the executor of my estate,
(Your name)
to contact Westie Rescue (see website for contact info); www.westierescue-mi.com) in regard to the placement of the West Highland White Terrier named
_____.
(The rescued Westies name)
My wishes are that this dog be placed with _____.
(Name of your preferred adopter) (be sure this person agrees!!)
Per the adoption contract, Westie Rescue must be contacted and approve this new placement. After interviewing _____, they will (Name of your preferred adopter)
determine if this person currently meets the requirements for the adoption. If so, they will provide an adoption contract. If not, they will take over the responsibility of finding a new placement for the Westie. In this case, as my executor, please contact the dog's veterinarian, _____, tele. # _____ (Name of the current veterinarian) (Number of vet)
to authorize the release of the dog's medical records to Westie Rescue.

Note: Westie Rescue will attempt to place directly from home to home and cannot guarantee foster care. If anything, including legal concerns involving settlement of the estate, delays the placement, the estate must pay any boarding costs.
