All purchase/acquisition paperwork that came with the dog.

All medical paperwork that came with the dog. Note: If extensive, you may pick out the more significant pieces, e.g., any indication of previous illnesses, spay/neuter records, the latest inoculations and tests and keep copies of those rather than the entire package. (At adoption, the medical paperwork in this binder can be transferred to the adopter's package once the original owner's name, address, etc. is blocked out.)

Send the acquisition and medical paperwork to the Dog Paperwork Coordinator immediately. Keep copies of the paperwork in your binder.

_____	Do not keep
